ARTICLE 1 – PURPOSE OF AGREEMENT

- 1.01 The purpose of this Agreement is to maintain harmonious and mutually beneficial relationships between the Employer, the employees and the Union; to set forth certain terms and conditions of employment relating to pay, hours of work, employee benefits and general working conditions affecting employees covered by this Agreement and ensures that all reasonable measures are provided for the safety and occupational health of the employees.
- 1.02 The parties of this Agreement share a desire to improve the quality, to promote well-being and increase the productivity of the employees to the end that the City will be well and efficiently served. Accordingly, the parties are determined to establish, within the framework provided by law, an effective working relationship at all levels in which members of the bargaining unit are employed.

ARTICLE 2 – INTERPRETATION AND DEFINITIONS

- 2.01 For the purpose of this Agreement:
- (a) 'Bargaining Unit' means employees occupying positions described in the Canada Industrial Relations Board Certificate dated August 21, 1975 and last amended June 18, 2004.
  - (b) 'Classification' means a group of positions having sufficiently similar duties, responsibilities, authority and required qualifications that a common descriptive title may be used.
  - (c) 'Continuous Employment' means uninterrupted employment with the City, except that:
    - (i) where an employee, other than a casual employee, ceases to be employed for a reason other than dismissal, abandonment of position or rejection on probation, and is reemployed within a period of three months, his periods of employment for purposes of severance pay and vacation leave shall be considered as continuous employment with the City; and any sick leave credits accumulated prior to termination shall be reinstated to the employee's credit;
    - (ii) in respect of a seasonal employee, continuous employment shall mean his total period of employment in successive years;
    - (iii) in respect of a casual employee who has been employed for more than three (3) months, continuous employment shall include periods of employment that have not been broken by a period of more than ten (10) consecutive days;

- (iv) where a casual employee is subsequently employed as a permanent employee, he shall be credited with a period of continuous employment as a casual employee for the purposes of seniority, severance pay, long service bonus and accumulation of vacation leave credits, provided his employment has not been broken by a period of more than ten (10) consecutive days. A casual shall be credited with the period of continuous employment for the purpose of Merit Pay Increments only when subsequent permanent employment is in the same position.
- (d) 'Day' means working day.
- (e) 'Day of Rest' in relation to an employee means a day on which that employee is not ordinarily required to perform the duties of his position. Such days do not include a holiday or days that the employee is absent on approved leave.
- (f) 'Department Head' means the head of a department (unit) and includes the person designated by him to so act.
- (g) 'Double Time' means two (2) times the straight-time rate.
- (h) 'Employee' means a person employed by the City on either a full-time or part-time basis, who comes within the scope of the Bargaining Unit as either:
  - (i) a permanent employee – means a person employed in a permanent position;
  - (ii) a seasonal employee – means a person employed in work of a seasonal nature, which is not continuous throughout the year, but recurs in successive years;
  - (iii) a casual employee – means a person employed for work of a temporary nature. Full-time casual employees in positions which are part of Appendix "A" Part III and all casual employees in positions which are part of Appendix "A" Part I who are employed for more than four (4) months shall become term employees.
  - (iv) a term employee – means a person employed on a full-time basis for a specific purpose and for a period not exceeding twelve (12) months. Prior to the engaging of a term employee, the Employer agrees to inform the Alliance of the purpose for which the employee is to be engaged and the anticipated length of time. A term employee shall be entitled to all of the provisions of the collective agreement from the first day of employment subject to the length of employment.

An employee on Maternity Leave shall only be replaced by a term employee.

The Employer shall not engage a term employee in lieu of establishing a full-time position or filling a vacant position unless by mutual consent between the Employer and the Alliance.

- (v) A part-time employee – means a person employed in a position for which the hours of work are less than the standard day, week or month.
- (i) 'Employer' means the City of Yellowknife.
- (j) 'Half-Day' means half of the total hours of work in an employee's normal shift.
- (k) 'Holiday' means the twenty-four (24) hour period commencing at 12:01 a.m. of a day designated as a paid holiday in this Agreement.
- (l) 'Immediate Family' means father, mother, brother, sister, spouse (including common-law), child or ward, father-in-law, mother-in-law, grandparent, grandchild of an employee and a relative permanently residing in the employee's household or with whom the employee permanently resides.
- (m) 'Lay-off' means the termination of employment of an employee due to lack of work or the discontinuance of a function.
- (n) 'Local' means Local X0345 of the National Component of the Public Service Alliance of Canada.
- (o) 'Membership Dues' means the dues established pursuant to the constitution of the Union as the dues payable by its members as a consequence of their membership in the Union and shall not include any initiation fees, insurance premium or special levy.
- (p) 'Overtime' means work performed by an employee in excess of his normal daily hours of work or work performed on a day of rest.
- (q) 'Position' means an aggregation of duties, tasks and responsibilities requiring the services of one employee.
- (r) 'Promotion' means the appointment of an employee to a position which has a higher maximum rate of pay than his present position.
- (s) 'Straight-time Rate' means an employee's hourly rate of pay as specified in Appendix "A", Parts II and III.
- (t) 'Time and one-half' means one and one-half (1 ½) times the straight-time rate.
- (u) 'Union' means the Public Service Alliance of Canada.
- (v) 'Vacation Year' means January 1 to December 31 of any year.

2.02 In order to determine daily, weekly and annual rate of pay for employees whose normal hours of work are thirty-seven and one-half (37 ½) hours per week, the following shall be used:

- (a) the daily rate of pay means an employee's hourly rate of pay times seven and one half (7 ½);

- (b) the weekly rate of pay means an employee's daily rate of pay times five (5);
- (c) the annual rate of pay means an employee's weekly rate of pay times 52.176.

In order to determine the daily, weekly and annual rate of pay for employees whose normal hours of work are forty (40) hours per week, the following shall be used:

- (a) the daily rate of pay means an employee's hourly rate of pay times eight (8);
- (b) the weekly rate of pay means an employee's daily rate of pay times five (5);
- (c) the annual rate of pay means the employee's weekly rate of pay times 52.176.

2.03 Wherever the masculine gender is specified in this Agreement, it shall be interpreted as including both male and female employees as applicable.

ARTICLE 3 – RECOGNITION

3.01 The City recognizes the Union as the sole and exclusive bargaining agent for all employees in the bargaining unit.

ARTICLE 4 – APPLICATION

4.01 The provisions of this Agreement apply to the Union employees and the Employer.

ARTICLE 5 – NO DISCRIMINATION

5.01 The Employer agrees that there shall be no discrimination, interference, restriction or coercion exercised or practiced with respect to any employee, by reason of his membership or activity in the Union.

5.02 The Employer shall not refuse to employ or continue to employ a person or discriminate in any of the terms or conditions of employment on the basis of race, creed, color, marital status, nationality, sex, sexual orientation, ancestry, place of origin, disability, age, family or criminal conviction for which a pardon has been granted.

5.03 Nothing in this Article deprives the Employer of the right to employ persons of any particular race, creed, color, sex, marital status, nationality, sexual orientation, ancestry, place of origin, disability, age or family or who have obtained a pardon in respect of a conviction in preference to other persons where such preference is based upon a bona fide occupational qualification necessary to the normal operation of the City.

5.04 The Union shall not exclude any person from full membership, expel, suspend, or in any way discriminate against any of its members or against anyone in regard to employment on proscribed grounds.

ARTICLE 6 – MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

- 6.01 Except to the extent provided herein, this Agreement in no way restricts the authority of those charged with managerial responsibilities in the City.

ARTICLE 7 – SAFETY AND HEALTH

7.01 Duty of the Employer

The Employer shall:

- (a) maintain its establishment in such a manner that the safety and health of employees are not likely to be endangered;
- (b) take all reasonable precautions and adopt and carry out all reasonable techniques and procedures to ensure the safety and health of every employee in its establishment; and
- (c) provide the First Aid Service requirements as set out in the Safety Regulations of the Northwest Territories Safety Act R.S.N.W.T. 1974c.s-1, as amended;
- (d) encourage and approve employees to take first aid courses provided by the Employer subject to operational requirements. The Employer will assume the costs of such courses and also the costs of refresher courses required to maintain the validity of a certificate. Employees approved to take first aid courses shall be granted leave with pay for the duration of the course.

7.02 Duty of the Employee

Every employee employed upon or in connection with every establishment shall, in the course of his employment:

- (a) take all reasonable precautions to ensure his own safety and the safety of other persons in the establishment; and
- (b) as the circumstances require, use devices and articles of clothing or equipment that are intended for their protection and furnished to them by the Employer, or required to be used or worn by them under the Safety Regulations of the Northwest Territories Safety Act R.S.N.W.T. 1974c.s-1, as amended.

7.03 Right to Refuse to Work

Subject to all provisions of the Northwest Territories Safety Act R.S.N.W.T. 1974c.s-1, as amended and to the Safety Regulations prescribed under the Safety Act as amended:

- (a) an employee may refuse to do any work where he has reason to believe that:

- (i) there exists an unusual danger to his health and safety;
  - (ii) the carrying out of the work is likely to cause to exist an unusual danger to his health or safety or that of any other person; or
  - (iii) the operation of any tool, appliance, machine, device or thing is likely to cause to exist an unusual danger to his health or safety or that of any other person.
- (b) 'unusual danger' means, in relation to any condition:
- (i) a danger that does not normally exist in that occupation; or
  - (ii) a danger under which a person engaged in that occupation would not normally carry out his work.
- (c) No loss of wages or discriminatory action shall be taken against any employee by reason of the fact that he exercised the right conferred upon him in subsection (a).
- (d) No other employee shall be required to use or operate any machine, device, material or thing or perform any part of the work which is being investigated pending resolution of the situation.

7.04 The Right to Know

Hazard Identification

The Employer shall identify new or presently used chemicals, substances or equipment present in the work area, including hazards or suspected hazards, precautions and antidotes or procedures to be used following exposure.

7.05 Investigation

- (a) The Occupational Health and Safety Committee shall ensure that necessary investigations are conducted in situations of work injuries and other situations identified by the Committee. The investigations shall be conducted in accordance with procedures developed by the Committee.
- (b) Reports of the investigations shall be submitted to the Committee as well as to the Union and the Employer, who may request further information from the person(s) who conducted the investigation.

7.06 Transportation of Injured Workers

The Employer shall, at its own expense, furnish to the employee injured in his place of work, when necessary, immediate conveyance and transportation to and from a hospital, medical practitioner or nursing station for initial treatment as prescribed in the Northwest Territories Safety Act R.S.N.W.T. 1974c.s-1, as amended and to the Safety Regulations prescribed under the Safety Act as amended from time to time.

- 7.07 The Employer shall, when purchasing new computer equipment, ensure that ergonomic design factors are adhered to.
- 7.08 The Employer shall make available to employees an updated copy of the Safety Act and Regulations and any Employer policies and procedures regarding Health and Safety.
- 7.09 Medical Examinations
- (a) Where the Employer requires an employee to undergo a medical examination by a qualified practitioner chosen by the Employee in order to maintain or retain a certification required by the Employer, the examination will be conducted at no expense to the Employee.
  - (b) An Employee shall be granted leave with pay to attend the examination.
  - (c) All occupational health information forms and records transmitted or used in connection with these occupational health examinations will be conveyed to the Employee involved and maintained by the Employer's Medical Officer.
- 7.10 The Employer and the Union agree that all clauses in Article 7 shall be interpreted in conjunction with the Northwest Territories Safety Act R.S.N.W.T. 1974c.s-1, as amended and to the Safety Regulations prescribed under the Safety Act as amended from time to time.

ARTICLE 8 – CONFLICT OF INTEREST

- 8.01 When an employee undertakes any business or employment outside his regularly scheduled hours of duty where:
- (a) there is a conflict between the duties the employee is required to perform in that business or employment and the duties he is required to perform for the Employer; and/or
  - (b) he exploits for personal gain any confidential information he has acquired in the course of his employment for the Employer, the Employer may prohibit that employee from participating in that outside employment by notifying the employee, in writing, together with the reason for such a prohibition. Any disagreement arising from the application of this article may be grieved in accordance with Article 14.

- 8.02 Under no circumstances will any City employee use City facilities or resources for the purpose of conducting a personal business venture.

ARTICLE 9 – EMPLOYER DIRECTIVES

- 9.01 The Employer shall provide the Local with a copy of those personnel directives which directly affect employees of the bargaining unit.

ARTICLE 10 – WORK SLOW-DOWN, INTERRUPTION OR STOPPAGE

- 10.01 The Employer shall not cause or direct any lockout of employees during the life of this Agreement and the Union shall not authorize or in any way encourage any strike, walkout, suspension of work or slow-down on the part of any employee or group of employees during the life of the Agreement.

ARTICLE 11 – UNION SECURITY

- 11.01 The Employer shall, as a condition of employment, deduct an amount equal to the amount of the membership dues from the monthly pay of all employees in the bargaining unit.
- 11.02 The Union shall inform the Employer, in writing, of the authorized monthly membership dues deduction to be checked off for each employee in the bargaining unit.
- 11.03 For the purpose of applying Clause 11.01, deductions from pay for each employee in respect of each month shall commence with the first full calendar month of employment to the extent that earnings are available. Where an employee has not received twenty (20) hours pay in respect of any month, the Employer shall not be obliged to make deductions in that month or from subsequent earnings for that month.
- 11.04 The amounts deducted in accordance with this Article shall be remitted to the Comptroller of the Union in the month following their deduction and shall be accompanied by particulars identifying each employee and the deductions made on his behalf. Such particulars shall include the number of hours worked in the month by part-time employees.
- 11.05 The Union agrees to indemnify and save the Employer harmless against any claim or liability arising out of the application of this article except for any claim or liability arising out of an error committed by the Employer limited to the amount actually involved in the error.
- 11.06 The Employer agrees to identify annually, on each employee's T-4 slip, the total amount of dues deducted for the preceding year.

ARTICLE 12 – UNION REPRESENTATION AND COMMITTEES

- 12.01 The Employer acknowledges the right of the Local to appoint employees as representatives and, in their absence, their alternates. The Employer shall be advised by letter of the names of those so appointed before they are recognized.

- 12.02 The Local and the Employer shall determine the jurisdiction and number of such representatives, having regard to the plan of organization, the distribution of employees at the workplace and the administrative structure implied by the grievance procedure covered by this Agreement.
- 12.03 The representative who is an employee shall obtain the permission of his immediate supervisor before leaving his work to investigate a complaint or grievance raised by an employee; to meet with local management for the purpose of dealing with a complaint or grievance and, to attend meetings called by management. Such permission shall not be unreasonably withheld. The representative is to advise his immediate supervisor upon his return to duty.
- 12.04 (a) The Employer and the Union acknowledge the mutual benefits to be derived from dialogue between the parties and as such, are prepared to establish and maintain a Joint Consultation Committee to discuss matters of common interest.
- (b) This Committee shall not supercede the activities of any other committee of the Union or its members or the Employer to any decisions or conclusions reached in their discussions. The committee shall have the power to make recommendations to the Union and the Employer with respect to its discussions and conclusions.
- 12.05 Where operational requirements permit, the Employer shall grant time off to not more than three employees who are attending meetings arranged with management on behalf of the Union. Where such meetings are held during the scheduled working hours of the employees involved there will be no deduction from their pay for such hours.
- 12.06 Where employees are attending meetings as prescribed in Clauses 12.03, 14.03 and 14.04 and these meetings occur during the employee's scheduled working hours, there will be no deduction from their pay for such hours.
- 12.07 Where operational requirements permit, the Employer shall grant reasonable leave without pay to not more than two employees at any one time to attend Executive meetings, conventions or training courses of the Union.
- 12.08 An accredited representative of the Union shall be permitted access to the City's premises upon prior approval by the Senior Administrative Officer or his delegate to attend meetings and assist in resolution of complaints and grievances. Approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.
- 12.09 Upon written request of the Union, an employee elected into the full-time position of Regional Executive Vice-President (North) or President of the Public Service Alliance of Canada shall be granted an unpaid leave of absence for the term of office. Upon return from the leave of absence, the employee shall return to his/her former position or an equivalent position and shall regain his/her accumulated rights and benefits.

ARTICLE 13 – INFORMATION FOR EMPLOYEES AND THE UNION

- 13.01 The Employer shall provide space for the Union to erect bulletin boards, which shall be for the exclusive use of the Union. The Union and the Employer shall agree upon the size and placement of the bulletin boards. The Employer reserves the right to remove material from the Union bulletin boards. If material is removed, the Employer shall notify the Union, and advise of the reason for the removal. The Employer shall provide the Union with a link on the Employer website to a site designated by the Union.
- 13.02 The Employer shall provide each employee with a copy of this Agreement within sixty (60) days of its signing.
- 13.03 The Employer shall provide to all new employees a copy of this Agreement upon commencement of employment.
- 13.04 (a) Within five (5) days of hiring a new employee, the Employer shall advise, in writing, the Local Union Representative of the classification, name, address, home phone number and Social Insurance Number of that employee.
- (b) Notwithstanding Clause 13.04(a), where an employee does not authorize the Employer to provide the Local Union Representative of his home address, home phone number and Social Insurance Number, the employee shall so indicate, in writing, to the Employer.

ARTICLE 14 – GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

14.01 Individual Grievances

An employee, who feels himself to be aggrieved by the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of the provisions of this Agreement, or by a disciplinary action, shall have the right to present a formal, written grievance in the manner prescribed.

14.02 Policy Grievances and Discharge of an Employee

When any difference arises directly between the Union and the Employer concerning the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of this Agreement, or when the Employer discharges an employee, the grievance procedure shall apply except that:

- (a) The grievance shall be submitted at Stage 2 only and within fifteen (15) days from the date the difference arises or the employee is discharged;
- (b) The ten (10) day time limit which the Senior Administrative Officer or his delegate is to reply shall be extended to fifteen (15) days.

14.03 Complaint Stage

An employee shall discuss his complaint with his supervisor within ten (10) days of the date on which he first became aware of the action or circumstances giving rise to the complaint.

Stage 1

Failing satisfactory settlement at the Complaint Stage, an employee shall submit his grievance in writing to the Department Head, or his delegate, within ten (10) days of the date on which he received a reply at the Complaint Stage.

The grievance shall state the nature of the grievance and, if applicable, the article(s) of this Agreement, the interpretation of which is in dispute or which is alleged to have been violated and the redress sought.

The Department Head, or his delegate, shall hold a hearing and shall reply to the grievance, in writing, within ten (10) days of the date of submission of the grievance at Stage 1.

An employee who presents a grievance at Stage 1 may, if he so desires, be assisted or represented by the Union.

Stage 2

In order to proceed to Stage 2, the employee shall have the support of and be represented by the Union.

Failing satisfactory settlement at Stage 1, an employee shall submit his grievance in writing to the Senior Administrative Officer, or his delegate, within five (5) days of the date on which he received a reply at Stage 1.

The Senior Administrative Officer, or his delegate, shall hold a meeting within ten (10) days of the grievance submission at Stage 2 and then shall reply in writing to the grievance within five (5) days of the meeting.

14.04 Arbitration

(a) In the event of failure to reach agreement on any grievance filed and of either party wishing to proceed, the party shall refer the matter to arbitration by a single arbitrator selected in rotation from the following list:

1. Tom Jolliffe
2. Glen Power
3. Alan Hope
4. David Jones

If an arbitrator whose turn it is to act is unable, for any reason to do so, the next available arbitrator will be selected.

(b) The party desiring to submit the matter to arbitration shall deliver to the other party a notice of intention to arbitrate. This notice shall be delivered within thirty (30) days of the date the decision was received at Stage 2. This notice shall state the matter at issue in concise terms and shall state precisely in what respect the Agreement has been violated or misinterpreted by reference to the specific clause(s) relied upon. The notice shall also stipulate the nature of the relief or remedy sought.

- (c) The Arbitrator shall hear the evidence of both parties and issue a decision within sixty (60) days of the hearing. The decision shall be final and binding upon the parties and upon any employee affected by it.
  - (d) The decision of the Arbitrator on the matter at issue shall be final and binding on both parties, but the jurisdiction of the Arbitrator shall be limited to deciding the matter at issue within the existing provisions of the Agreement and in no event shall the Arbitrator have the power to add to, subtract from, alter or amend this Agreement in any respect.
  - (e) Each party shall pay its own costs and the fees and expenses of witnesses called by it. The fees and expenses of the Arbitrator shall be shared equally between the parties.
- 14.05 The time limits specified herein shall be deemed to be exclusive of Saturdays and Sundays and those holidays described in Article 28 of this Agreement and may be extended by mutual consent, in writing, by the parties.
- 14.06 Subject to Clause 14.05, any grievance not submitted within the prescribed time limits or in accordance with the procedures of this article, shall be deemed to have been abandoned and may not be reopened.
- 14.07 No grievance shall be deemed invalid solely because it is not presented on the proper form, provided that the grievance complies with the requirements of this Article.

ARTICLE 15 – SENIORITY

- 15.01 A seniority list of permanent employees covered by this Agreement shall be posted by the Employer quarterly. Such lists shall show names and dates of last entry into service with the City as a permanent employee. Seniority shall accumulate from that date.
- 15.02 If an employee is transferred or promoted to a permanent position which is excluded from the bargaining unit the employee shall retain his seniority for twelve (12) months during which time he may move back into the bargaining unit. After twelve (12) months of employment with the Employer outside of the bargaining unit, the employee relinquishes any seniority under this Agreement.
- 15.03 An Employee who has been laid off shall retain his seniority status for a period of twelve (12) months. If recalled to service in the bargaining unit within twelve (12) months of the day of lay-off, he shall be reinstated with seniority status held at time of lay-off.
- 15.04 An employee who resigns or is discharged for cause shall forfeit all seniority rights under this Agreement.

- 15.05 When two (2) or more employees are hired by the Employer on the same calendar date, the employee whose surname is first alphabetically, will be shown as such on the seniority list.

ARTICLE 16 – APPOINTMENTS, PROBATION, PROMOTIONS AND TRANSFERS

- 16.01 Where the Employer determines that a vacancy exists in a classification to which this Agreement applies, a bulletin giving pertinent details of the position and inviting interested and qualified employees to apply for the permanent position, shall be posted on all bulletin boards for a minimum of five (5) working days.

The Employer will make every reasonable effort to ensure that bulletins are posted on all bulletin boards the day that the posting is issued.

Where conditions of the service indicate a requirement to fill a vacant position immediately, the position may be filled on a temporary basis for a period not exceeding ninety (90) calendar days.

16.02 Appointments

- (a) Appointments to bulletined positions shall be made on the basis of qualifications, performance, ability and experience.
- (b) When two (2) or more candidates' qualifications, performance, ability and experience are judged to be relatively equal, seniority shall govern.

- 16.03 The name of the successful candidate shall be provided to the Union and all unsuccessful bargaining unit candidates upon the completion of the selection process. Unsuccessful candidates shall have five (5) working days from the date of notification to initiate a grievance on the selection at Stage 2 of the grievance procedure.

- 16.04 Where, as a result of action taken under Clause 16.01 and Clause 16.02, it is determined by the Employer that there are no qualified employee applicants for the bulletined position; the Employer may then fill the vacancy by any other selection process.

16.05 Probation

The probationary period on initial appointment of new employees shall be six (6) months. If, during the probationary period, an employee's performance is judged to be unsatisfactory, the Employer shall provide notice, in writing, at least ten (10) days prior to the expiry of the probationary period. Employees serving their probationary period on initial appointment shall not be eligible for promotions or transfers.

16.06 Promotions and Transfers

- (a) An employee who is promoted or transferred to a position in accordance with

Clause 16.02, shall be on probation in the new position for six (6) months. If, during such probationary period, the Employer decides that the employee does not satisfactorily perform the duties of the position, the employee shall be reinstated in his former position or an equivalent classification in the bargaining unit. When the employee's performance in the new position is judged to be unsatisfactory, the Employer shall provide notice, in writing, at least ten (10) days prior to expiry of the probationary period.

- (b) When an employee who is serving the first three (3) months of his probationary period on promotion or transfer is promoted or transferred again, his probationary period shall continue until the expiry date and the provisions of Clause 16.06 (a) shall apply.
- (c) When an employee who is serving the last three (3) months of his probationary period on promotion or transfer is promoted or transferred again, his probationary period shall be extended by three (3) months and the provisions of Clause 10.06 (a) shall apply.

ARTICLE 17 – STATEMENT OF DUTIES

- 17.01 The Employer shall, when requested to do so by the employee, provide to the employee within ten (10) working days of that employee's request, an accurate job description of his position, including the position's classification level and the total point factor rating for the position.
- 17.02 When an employee is first engaged or when an employee is reassigned to another position in the bargaining unit, the Employer shall, before the employee is assigned to that position, provide the employee with an accurate job description of the position, including the classification level.

ARTICLE 18 – CLASSIFICATION

- 18.01 The establishment and maintenance of a classification plan, which is to be applied to all employees of the City within the scope of this Agreement, shall be the sole responsibility of the Employer. However, positions whose duties and responsibilities are substantially changed, may be reviewed by the Employer or at the request of the employee. Any disagreement arising from the application of this Article may be grieved in accordance with Article 14.
- 18.02 Benchmark position descriptions are set out in the City of Yellowknife Classification/Pay Equity Standard dated June 1, 1990.
- 18.03 The Employer agrees to discuss with the Union and any affected employee(s) a new or revised position classification prior to implementation.
- 18.04 Where an employee believes that he has been improperly classified with respect to his position, pay range and step, he shall discuss his classification with his immediate supervisor and, on request, be provided with a copy of his job description, including the position's classification level and point rating allotted by factor, for the purpose of grievance.

18.05 Classification Appeals

If, after Stage 2 of the grievance procedure, an employee is still dissatisfied with the decision, he may appeal to the Classification Appeal Board and the following provisions shall apply:

- (a) The employee must appeal to the Senior Administrative Officer within fifteen (15) days of the date on which he received a reply at Stage 2. The Senior Administrative Officer shall refer the appeal to the Classification Appeal Board.
- (b) The Classification Appeal Board shall consist of the nominee of the Employer, one member of the Union Local or designated Union representative and a Chairman agreed upon by the two nominees. Failing agreement upon the choice of a person to act as Chairman, either party may, within ten (10) days of the appointment of the last nominee, or as otherwise agreed upon between them apply to the Minister of Labour to appoint a Chairman.
- (c) The Employer and the Union shall share equally the cost of the Chairman.
- (d) The Board shall make its decision within thirty (30) days of the day of sitting.
- (e) The Board's decision shall be final and binding until such time that the employee is promoted, demoted, transferred or is provided with a revised job description.

18.06 New Classifications

- (a) Rates of pay for new classifications, which come within the scope of this Agreement and are created during the term of this Agreement, shall be negotiated with the Union. However, if a satisfactory conclusion to negotiations has not been reached within ten (10) working days of the date of notice by the Employer to the Union of the creation of said classification, any vacancy in this classification can be bulletined according to the rate of pay set out by the Employer.
- (b) If the event that said vacancy is bulletined prior to satisfactory conclusion of negotiations, the rate of pay for the classification of the position shall still be a matter of negotiations and in the event that the parties agree to a rate which differs from the rate originally proposed by the Employer, the new rate shall be retroactive to the date of appointment of any employee to the new position.

ARTICLE 19 – EMPLOYEE PERFORMANCE REVIEW AND EMPLOYEE FILES

- 19.01 When a formal assessment of an employee's performance is made, the employee concerned must be given an opportunity to sign the assessment form in question upon its completion to indicate that its contents have been read. Upon written request, a copy of the assessment form will be provided to him at that time.

- 19.02 The Employer agrees not to introduce as evidence in a hearing, any document from the file of an employee relating to disciplinary action, the contents of which the employee was not aware of at that time.
- 19.03 Upon written request of an employee, the personnel file of that employee will be made available for his examination in the presence of an authorized representative of that Employer.

ARTICLE 20 – JOB SECURITY, LAY-OFF AND RECALL OF SERVICE

- 20.01 The Employer shall make every reasonable effort to provide continued employment of a suitable nature to a permanent employee whose position has become redundant as a result of technological change, discontinuance of a function or other action initiated by the Employer.
- 20.02 (a) The Employer shall make every reasonable effort for continued employment with the City of permanent employees who would otherwise become redundant because work is contracted out.
- (b) The Employer shall consult with the Union concerning its plans to contract out work that may be performed by employees in the Bargaining Unit prior to implementing any plans.
- 20.03 A permanent employee who is about to be laid off, where the period of lay-off is in excess of one (1) month, shall be entitled to exercise his seniority rights, displacing a junior employee, provided he has sufficient ability, training, and experience to perform the work.
- 20.04 Where a permanent employee is laid off for a period of less than one (1) month, the employee shall be considered in continuous employment for the purpose of Life, Accidental Death & Dismemberment, Long Term Disability Insurance Plan and Dental Plan contributions and any similar contributions made for the purpose of continuation of any benefit. During such period, any applicable premiums or contributions shall be paid in total by the Employer.
- 20.05 Where a function is to be discontinued and a permanent employee is to be laid off, he shall be given as much advance notice as possible but, in any event, not less than one (1) month's notice in writing.
- 20.06 Where a permanent employee has been laid-off, he shall be placed on a lay-off list for a period of twelve (12) months and given preference for recall in any job classification for which he has the required training, ability and experience.
- 20.07 Where laid-off employees are to be recalled, the employee with the most seniority shall be recalled first.

ARTICLE 21 – HOURS OF WORK

- 21.01 Subject to Clause 21.02 for employees occupying positions listed in Appendix “A”, Part I, the work week shall be thirty-seven and one-half (37 ½) hours or forty (40) hours, Monday to Friday inclusive and the hours of work shall be scheduled so that employees work seven and one-half (7 ½) hours or eight (8) hours respectively per working day, exclusive of lunch periods.
- 21.02 When, because of operational requirements of the Employer, hours of work are scheduled for employees occupying positions listed in Appendix A, Part I, on a rotating or irregular basis, they shall be scheduled so that the employees work either:
- (a) an average of thirty-seven and one-half (37 ½) hours and five (5) days on a weekly basis and seven and one-half (7 ½) hours per day on a daily basis; or
  - (b) an average of forty (40) hours and five (5) days on a weekly basis and eight (8) hours per day on a daily basis.
- 21.03 For employees who work pursuant to Article 21.02:
- (a) The Employer shall set up a master weekly shift schedule and post it not less than fourteen (14) calendar days in advance;
  - (b) The Employer shall not schedule the commencement of a permanent full time employee’s regularly scheduled shift within twelve (12) hours of the completion of that employee’s previous regularly scheduled shift;
  - (c) The Employer shall make every reasonable effort to give an employee twenty-four (24) hours notice of an alteration of his schedule.
- 21.04 Lunch Period
- (a) Employees shall have an unpaid lunch period of at least one (1) hour’s duration as close to the mid-point of the work day as possible.
  - (b) Employees engaged on a rotating shift work basis who are unable to leave the workplace for a meal break shall be allowed a one-half (1/2) hour meal period on paid time during which they shall continue all necessary supervision of machinery and maintenance of services.
- 21.05 Rest Periods
- (a) The Employer shall provide two (2) paid rest periods of fifteen (15) minutes each, commencing on or about mid-morning and mid-afternoon or the middle of the first half and the last half of a shift.

- (b) Notwithstanding Clause 21.05(a), for employees engaged on a rotating shift work basis on continuous operations, the Employer shall provide two (2) paid rest periods of fifteen (15) minutes each, commencing on or about mid-morning and mid-afternoon or the middle of the first half and the last half of a shift, during which time they shall continue all necessary supervision of machinery and maintenance of services.

21.06 Notwithstanding anything in this Article, an employee's scheduled hours of work shall not be construed as guaranteeing the minimum hours of work.

ARTICLE 22 – OVERTIME

22.01 An employee is entitled to overtime compensation for each completed period of fifteen (15) minutes of overtime worked by him at the rate of time and one-half (1 ½), except as provided in sub-section (a), (b) and (c).

- (a) Double time for all overtime worked in excess of four (4) consecutive hours of overtime on a normal working day.
- (b) Double time for all overtime worked in excess of eight (8) consecutive hours on the first day of rest.
- (c) Double time for all time worked on the second and subsequent days of rest.

22.02 The Employer shall make every reasonable effort to allocate overtime work on an equitable basis among readily available, qualified employees and to give employees who are required to work overtime, reasonable advance notice.

22.03 Overtime work will be compensated by payment not later than the pay period following the pay period in which it was earned.

22.04 If an employee is required to work three (3) or more hours of overtime immediately before or immediately following his normal hours of work and because of operational requirements, the employee is not permitted to leave his place of work, he shall be supplied a meal by the Employer if at all possible. The authority to purchase such a meal will rest with the person in charge of that particular job.

22.05 Accumulation of Overtime (Lieu Time)

An employee who earns overtime shall be paid at the appropriate rate of pay for such time, except where an employee elects that such overtime hours be accumulated in accordance with the following:

- (a) All hours which an employee elects to accumulate shall be accumulated at the overtime rate up to and including a maximum of ten (10) regular working days per calendar year inclusive of call-outs, reports to work, and standby.
- (b) Upon application, an employee having banked overtime hours may draw any portion of banked hours up to and including a maximum of ten (10) regular working days per calendar year in paid time off providing that such time off does not conflict or interfere with the efficient operation of the City.

- (c) If the accumulated hours are not utilized by December 31st of the calendar year in which the hours were accumulated, an employee may carry over such overtime hours to the next calendar year. The maximum accumulated overtime hours which can be carried over shall not exceed five (5) regular working days. The employee shall have the time equivalent of the carry over included as part of the maximum allowable of ten (10) days paid time off for the next calendar year.
- (d) Notwithstanding that an employee has elected to accumulate overtime hours in the manner set out above, he may subsequently change such election and receive pay for such hours.
- (e) Employees having banked overtime shall be paid for such time at the current rate of pay.

ARTICLE 23 – PAY

23.01 Employees are entitled to be paid for services rendered at the straight time rate of pay specified in the Pay Schedule, Appendix A, Part II and III for the classification of the position to which they are appointed.

23.02 Promotion

- (a) Where an employee is promoted to having a higher maximum salary than the one held by him, he shall be paid at the step in his new salary range that provides him with an increase in pay that is not less than four (4%) percent, provided that the maximum rate of pay in that range is not exceeded.

In addition, if a merit pay increase is due not later than six (6) months from the date of a promotion and is recommended, a merit pay increase will be granted at the time of promotion on the present pay level prior to application of the new pay level. Where this occurs, the employee's salary review date shall be changed to the effective date of the promotion.

- (b) If the employee fails to qualify, he shall revert to his former position or an equivalent position having the same rate of pay as his former position and, for the purposes of Clause 23.04(b) (Merit Pay Increases), the employee's salary review date shall revert to the anniversary date of his initial appointment to his former position.

23.03 Acting Pay

Where an employee is appointed, in writing, to perform the duties of a position having a higher maximum salary than the one held by him for a temporary period, he shall be paid at the step in the range of the position being relieved that gives him an increase in pay that is not less than four (4%) percent, provided that maximum rate of pay in that range is not exceeded. Such additional salary shall be paid only when the period of relief in the higher position exceeds three (3) consecutive work days and, in this event the increased salary shall apply for the whole of the relief period.

23.04 Merit Pay Increase

- (a) An employee, who holds a position for which there is a minimum and maximum rate of pay, shall be granted a salary increment, each year until he reaches the maximum step in range for that position. Such salary increments are subject to satisfactory performance of the duties of the position by the employees and shall not be granted to the employee until his Department Head certifies to the Senior Administrative Officer that the employee is so performing the duties of his position.
- (b) Salary increments granted to an employee each year shall be effective on his anniversary date of current appointment until the maximum in the range of rates has been reached.
- (c) When the Employer elects to withhold a salary increment, it shall advise the employee, in writing at least five (5) days prior to the due date of the increment.

23.05 Permanent employees occupying positions listed in Appendix A, Part I, and employees occupying casual positions, listed in Appendix A, Part III, shall be paid on a bi-weekly basis in accordance with calculations shown in Article 2.02. If a payday should coincide with a designated holiday, the employee shall be paid on the preceding working day.

23.06 Long Service Bonus

- (a) Effective January 1, 1991, an employee shall receive a Long Service Bonus of $1,000.00 upon completion of five (5) years of continuous employment and on each subsequent fifth anniversary date thereafter, except that an employee who received a Long Service Bonus in 1978 shall begin to accumulate his next five years as of his anniversary date in 1978.
- (b) When an employee who has completed at least five (5) years of service terminates, the above mentioned bonus will be prorated in the amount of $16.66 per month for each completed month of employment, the months to be accumulated from the last payment of the Long Service Bonus.

ARTICLE 24 – CALL-OUT AND REPORTING PAY

24.01 An employee called into work outside his normal hours or who reports to work outside his normal working hours shall be paid the greater of:

- (a) Compensation at the applicable overtime rates; or
- (b) Compensation equivalent to four (4) hours of pay at the straight time rate; provided that all call-outs or reports to work within an eight (8) hour period from the start of the first call-out or report to work shall be considered as one (1) call-out or report to work for the purposes of payment of compensation. For the purposes of calculating compensation, subsequent eight (8) hour periods shall commence at the start of the first call-out or report to work following the completion of the first eight (8) hour period.

- 24.02 The provisions of Clause 24.01 do not apply to employees who, by prior arrangement, work additional hours contiguous to their normal hours of work but separated by a period of time to allow employees to consume a meal.

ARTICLE 25 – SHIFT PREMIUM

- 25.01 A shift premium of one dollar and twenty cents ($1.20) per hour shall be paid for actual hours worked between 5:00 p.m. and 7:00 a.m.
- 25.02 Shift premiums under Clause 25.01 shall not be paid on hours worked between 7:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. and shall only be paid on regular hours.

ARTICLE 26 – STANDBY

- 26.01 Where an Employer requires an employee to be available on standby during off-duty hours, the employee shall be entitled to a standby payment of one (1) hour's pay for each eight (8) hours or portion thereof on standby.
- 26.02 An employee on standby shall receive standby pay in addition to whatever entitlements he may receive under Article 22, Overtime and Article 24, Call-out and Reporting Pay.
- 26.03 An employee designated by letter or by list for standby duty shall be available during his period of standby at a known telephone number and be available to return to duty as quickly as possible if called. In designating employees for standby, the Employer will endeavor to provide for the equitable distribution of standby duties.
- 26.04 No standby payment shall be granted if an employee is unable to report for duty when required during any eight (8) hour standby period or portion thereof.

ARTICLE 27 – SEVERANCE PAY

- 27.01 Lay-Off

A permanent employee who has one (1) year or more of continuous employment and who is laid off, is entitled to be paid severance pay at the time of lay-off at the rate of two (2) weeks pay for the first complete year of continuous employment and one (1) week of pay for each additional year or partial year of continuous employment; less any severance pay he was granted for the previous lay-off.

27.02 Death

Regardless of any other benefit payable, if an employee dies, there shall be paid to his designated beneficiary, an amount equal to the product obtained by multiplying his weekly rate of pay at the time of death by the number of completed years of his continuous employment, to a maximum of twenty (20) weeks of pay.

27.03 Retirement

A permanent employee who is 55 years of age or over and has a minimum of ten (10) years of continuous employment shall, upon retirement, be paid severance pay equal to the product obtained by multiplying his weekly rate of pay upon retirement by the number of years of his continuous employment, to a maximum of twenty-five (25) weeks pay less any severance pay he was granted under Clause 27.01.

27.04 Termination for Health Reasons

A permanent employee whose employment is terminated by reason that the employee is incapable of performing his duties because of chronically poor health shall be paid severance pay on termination equal to the product obtained by multiplying his weekly rate of pay on termination of employment by the number of years of continuous employment to a maximum of twenty (20) weeks, less any severance pay which he was granted under Clause 27.01.

27.05 The weekly rate of pay referred to in the above clauses shall be the weekly rate of pay to which a permanent employee is entitled, based on the definition contained in Article 2.02.

ARTICLE 28 – DESIGNATED PAID HOLIDAYS

28.01 Subject to Clause 28.02, the following days shall be designated paid holidays for permanent employees:

- (a) New Year's Day;
- (b) Good Friday;
- (c) Easter Monday;
- (d) The day fixed by the Governor-General for observance of the birthday of the reigning sovereign;
- (e) National Aboriginal Day;
- (f) Canada Day;
- (g) The first Monday in August;
- (h) Labour Day;
- (i) Thanksgiving Day;
- (j) Remembrance Day;
- (k) Christmas Day; and
- (l) Boxing Day.

28.02 Clause 28.01 does not apply to an employee who is absent without approved leave on either the working day immediately preceding or the working day following the designated holiday.

28.03 Holidays Falling on a Day of Rest

When a day designated as a holiday under Clause 28.02 coincides with a permanent employee's day of rest, the holiday shall be moved to the permanent employee's first working day following his day of rest.

28.04 When a day designated as a holiday for a permanent employee is moved to another day under the provisions of Clause 28.03:

- (a) Work performed by a permanent employee on the day from which the holiday was moved, shall be considered as work performed on a day of rest; and
- (b) Work performed by a permanent employee on the day to which the holiday was moved, shall be considered as work performed on a holiday.

28.05 When an employee works on a holiday, he shall be paid two and a half times ( $2 \frac{1}{2}$ ) his straight time rate of pay for all hours worked.

28.06 Holiday Coinciding with Day of Paid Leave

Where a day that is a designated holiday for an employee falls within a period of leave with pay, the holiday shall not count as a day of leave.

ARTICLE 29 – VACATION LEAVE

29.01 Accumulation of Vacation Leave

- (a) For each calendar month in which a permanent employee received at least ten (10) days pay, he shall earn leave at the following rates:
  - (i) One and one-quarter ( $1 \frac{1}{4}$ ) days per calendar month, if he has completed less than four (4) years of continuous employment.
  - (ii) One and two-thirds ( $1 \frac{2}{3}$ ) days per calendar month upon completion of four (4) years and less than eight (8) years of continuous employment.
  - (iii) Two and one-twelfth ( $2 \frac{1}{12}$ ) days per calendar month upon completion of eight (8) years and less than sixteen (16) years of continuous employment.
  - (iv) Two and one-half ( $2 \frac{1}{2}$ ) days per calendar month upon completion of sixteen (16) years and less than twenty (20) years of continuous employment.

- (v) Two and twenty-three twenty-fifths ( $2 \frac{23}{25}$ ) days per calendar month upon completion of twenty (20) years of continuous employment.
- (b) For all employees hired after January 1, 2000, for each calendar month in which a permanent employee received at least ten (10) days pay he shall earn leave at the following rates:
  - (i) One and one-quarter ( $1 \frac{1}{4}$ ) days per calendar month, if he has completed less than five (5) years of continuous employment.
  - (ii) One and two-thirds ( $1 \frac{2}{3}$ ) days per calendar month, upon completion of five (5) years and less than ten (10) years of continuous employment.
  - (iii) Two and one-twelfth ( $2 \frac{1}{12}$ ) days per calendar month, upon completion of ten (10) years and less than twenty (20) years of continuous employment.
  - (iv) Two and one-half ( $2 \frac{1}{2}$ ) days per calendar month, upon completion of twenty (20) years of employment.
- (c) On January 1st of any year, an employee shall be credited with the anticipated annual leave credits to be earned in that vacation year. As vacation leave is utilized, such leave shall be deducted from the employee's leave credits.

29.02 Permanent employees may not receive vacation leave with pay prior to six (6) months of employment.

29.03 A permanent employee shall receive the vacation leave to which he is entitled, as leave at the straight-time rate of pay for the position to which he is permanently appointed or serving in the required probationary period thereof. However, an employee acting in a higher level position for more than one (1) month shall receive vacation leave with pay at the acting rate, provided he resumes the duties on an acting basis following the period of vacation.

29.04 Granting of Vacation Leave

Subject to operational requirements, the Employer shall make every reasonable effort in granting vacation leave with pay to an employee:

- (a) not to recall an employee to duty after he has proceeded on vacation leave;
- (b) to grant the employee his vacation leave at a time specified by him;
- (c) to grant the employee his full annual vacation leave during one vacation period when so requested by the employee;
- (d) to confirm the authorization of vacation leave within ten (10) days after the employee has applied for such leave;
- (e) to schedule vacation leave on an equitable basis and when there is no conflict with the interests of the Employer or the other employees, according to the wishes of the employee;

- (f) when two (2) or more employees request the same vacation period, at the same time, seniority shall govern;
- (g) to grant the employee his vacation leave when specified by the employee, if the period of vacation leave is less than a week, provided the employee gives the Employer reasonable advance notice; and
- (h) to grant the employee his vacation leave when specified by the employee, if the period of vacation leave is more than a week, provided that, except in extraordinary circumstances, the employee gives the Employer a minimum of ten (10) working days notice in advance.

29.05 Where the Employer has proposed to change, reduce or deny the vacation leave requested by the employee, the Employer shall provide the employee with the reasons, in writing, for such change, reduction or denial of vacation leave.

29.06 Where, in respect of any period of vacation leave, an employee:

- (a) is granted special leave, when there is a death in his immediate family, as described in Article 2.01 (l);
- (b) is granted special leave with pay because of illness in the family, as described in Article 31.03;
- (c) is granted sick leave on production of a medical certificate attesting to an illness or injury.

the period of vacation leave so displaced shall either be added to the vacation period, if requested by the employee and approved by the Employer, or reinstated for use at a later date, provided that the employee provides the Employer with the proper documentation within ten (10) days of reporting back to work.

29.07 Carry-Over Provisions

Employees are only permitted to carry-over those vacation leave credits which can be earned in one vacation year, except where the employee has not been granted the vacation leave requested by him. Annual leave credits which have been carried over and which exceed one (1) year entitlement will be liquidated in cash at the end of the vacation year.

29.08 Recall from Vacation Leave

When, during any period of vacation leave, an employee is recalled to duty, he and his family shall be reimbursed for reasonable expenses, as normally defined by the Employer, that he incurs;

- (a) in proceeding to his place of duty;

- (b) in respect of any non-refundable deposits or pre-arrangements associated with his vacation; and
- (c) in returning to the place from which he was recalled, if he immediately submits such accounts as are normally required by the Employer.

29.09 The employee shall not be considered as being on vacation leave during any period in respect of which he is entitled under Clause 29.08 to be reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred by him.

29.10 When the Employer cancels or alters a period of vacation leave for a permanent employee, which has previously been approved in writing, the Employer shall reimburse the employee and his family for the non-returnable deposits or reservations made by the employee in respect of such leave, subject to the presentation of such documentation as the Employer may require. The employee shall make every reasonable attempt to mitigate any possible loss and shall provide proof of such action to the Employer.

29.11 Where a permanent or probationary employee dies or otherwise terminates his employment after a period of continuous employment:

- (a) he or his estate shall, in lieu of earned but unused vacation leave, be paid an amount equal to the product obtained by multiplying the number of days of earned but unused vacation leave by the daily rate of pay applicable to the employee's permanent position, immediately prior to the termination of his employment.
- (b) the Employer shall grant the employee any vacation leave earned but not used by him before the employment is terminated by lay-off if the employee so requests because of a requirement to meet the minimum service requirements for severance pay.

29.12 Vacation Travel Allowance

- (a) After two (2) years continuous employment all permanent employees are entitled to Vacation Travel Allowance annually in the amount of one thousand one hundred ($1,100.00) dollars.
- (b) The first Vacation Travel Allowance shall be paid on the employee's second anniversary date. The Employer will pay out the portion of the Vacation Travel Allowance earned from the second anniversary date to December 31st of the same year, at the rate of ninety-one dollars and sixty-seven ($91.67) cents for each month, subject to:
  - (i) an employee having worked ten (10) days in each month; and
  - (ii) an employee having worked twenty-four (24) consecutive months.

The Vacation Travel Allowance in subsequent years shall be paid by the end of each calendar year.

- (c) When an employee who has completed at least two (2) years of service terminates, the Vacation Travel Allowance will be prorated in the amount of ninety-one dollars and sixty-seven ($91.67) cents per month for each completed month of service in which ten (10) days are worked, the months to be accumulated from the last payment of Vacation Travel Allowance.

- (d) It is agreed and understood the above shall apply only to those employees entitled to receive the Vacation Travel Allowance pursuant to the current Collective Agreement.
- (e) All permanent employees shall receive a monthly Vacation Travel Allowance in the amount of one hundred fifty ($150.00) dollars for each calendar month in which the employee has worked at least ten (10) days.

29.13 Vacation Travel Time

Each permanent employee shall receive four (4) days leave with pay once each vacation year for the purpose of travel when taking his annual vacation, provided he liquidates at least five (5) consecutive days of vacation leave. These travel days are not to be accumulated from year to year unless the employee is prohibited, by the Employer, from taking his vacation in any vacation year.

ARTICLE 30 – SICK LEAVE

30.01 Accumulation of Credits

A permanent employee shall earn sick leave credits at the rate of one and one-quarter (1 ¼) days for each calendar month for which he earns pay for at least ten (10) days.

30.02 Sick leave accumulated by a permanent employee prior to the signing of this agreement shall remain as a credit to the permanent employee.

30.03 Provided that the necessary credits have been accumulated, permanent employees shall receive one hundred (100%) percent of their straight-time rate of pay for each day of illness or injury during the first five (5) incidents in each calendar year. In the event that the period of illness or injury during these incidents exceeds three (3) working days the employee shall provide the Employer with a certificate signed by a medical practitioner. For all incidents over five (5) the employee shall receive one hundred (100%) percent of their straight-time rate of pay if the employee provides the Employer with a certificate signed by a medical practitioner. An incident is any period of illness or injury.

- 30.04 (a) There shall be no charge against an employee's sick leave credits when his absence on account of illness or injury is less than one-half (1/2) day and the employee has been on duty for at least two (2) hours.
- (b) Where the period of absence on account of illness and injury is at least one-half (1/2) day, but less than a full day, one half (1/2) day only shall be charged as sick leave.

- 30.05 An employee is not eligible for sick leave with pay during any period in which he is on leave of absence or under suspension.
- 30.06 (a) Where a permanent employee has insufficient or no credits to cover the granting of sick leave with pay under the provision of Clause 30.03 or 30.08, at the discretion of the Employer, he shall be granted sick leave credits in advance to a limit of fifteen (15) days, which shall be charged against future credits earned.
- (b) Where a permanent employee has no sick leave credits to cover the granting of sick leave with pay under the provisions of Clauses 30.03 or 30.08; and
- (i) the employee has not been advanced sick leave credits under Clause 30.06(a) or
- (ii) sick leave credits have been advanced to the employee under Clause 30.06(a) and those advanced credits have been exhausted;

APPENDIX B

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING

12 HOUR SHIFT AGREEMENT

PUMPHOUSE OPERATOR POSITIONS

1. The working arrangement may be canceled by either party provided that sixty (60) days written notice is given to the other party. Neither party shall serve termination notice without prior discussions of the reasons for the termination being held.
2. The normal hours of work shall consist of rotating schedules where the Operators work primarily twelve (12) hour shifts starting at 7:00 and 19:00, with an occasional eight (8) hour day. Scheduled days off will be four and the occasional five days off between shifts. Pay periods will consist of eighty (80) hours biweekly and the shift schedule shall be such that the average hours worked over the course of fifty-two (52) weeks is 80 hours bi-weekly, for a total of 2,080.
3. Shift premiums will be one dollar and fourty cents ($1.40) per hour for actual hours worked between 19:00 hours and 07:00 hours.
4. The Pumphouse & Liftstation Maintainer IIB and Pumphouse and Liftstation Maintainer II positions are to be used only for regularly scheduled leave or in an emergency situation for nonscheduled leave. If an emergency situation exists, a detailed written explanation will be presented to the Director of Public Works and Engineering who must approve for the use of these positions. Every effort will be made to schedule them so that they work forty (40) hours per week when starting or finishing Pumphouse duties.
5. Vacation Leave, Sick Leave, Special Leave and other types of leave will be in accordance with Sections 29, 30, 31 and 32 of the Collective Agreement. All leave entitlements will be calculated/utilized in hours.
6. DESIGNATED HOLIDAYS
  - (i) All employees will receive twelve (12) hours pay at the straight time rate for each designated holiday.
  - (ii) If an employee's regular shift falls on a holiday and he works such a shift, he shall be entitled to receive an additional one and one-half (1 ½) times his regular pay.

- (iii) If a designated holiday falls on a scheduled day of rest, the holiday shall not be moved to the next working day.

7. OVERTIME

- (i) An employee is entitled to overtime compensation for each period of thirty (30) minutes worked in excess of the hours scheduled for that day at one and one-half (1 ½) times the straight time rate of pay.
  - (ii) An employee who is requested to work on his first two (2) regularly scheduled days of rest shall be paid one and one-half (1 ½) times his straight time rate of pay for all hours worked.
  - (iii) An employee who is requested to work on his last two (2) regularly scheduled days of rest shall be paid two (2) times his straight time rate of pay for all hours worked.
8. Except where amended above, the terms of the Collective Agreement shall apply to the Pumphouse Operators and to the following positions when functioning as relief Pumphouse Operators:
Pumphouse Trades Supervisor
Pumphouse and Liftstation Maintainer IIB and Pumphouse and Liftstation Maintainer II.
9. Under the terms of the Letter of Understanding, these positions will be excluded from Article 21, and Article 22 (except 22.03 and 22.05) of the Collective Agreement.

Signed this 11th day of March, 2005.
